

KILKENNY COUNTY COUNCIL LIBRARY SERVICE

Library Door to Door Service for over 65's

Kilkenny County Council Library Service are delighted to expand our door to door delivery service to include library members aged 65 or over.

In response to the growing challenges faced by many older library members, we developed a Door to Door service for our County cocooners early last year. This has gone from strength to strength, with increasing numbers of people availing of the service, which requires nothing but a library membership!

How to sign up:

- If you are not a member, sign up online for membership through kilkennylibrary.ie. Phone your local library or library Headquarters with your temporary library card number, and we will complete the process for you.
- If you are a member and have already given your date of birth to the library, you will be contacted automatically, as your details are on our library system.

Staff from your local library will be in contact with you, and will have a chat about the type of books you like reading, films you like watching, or factual books you enjoy browsing through. With almost 4,000 members over 65, so it will take a while!

Once all the calls are made, staff begin selecting the books according to what people like, offering a personalised service to each person.

Stringent health and safety measures are adhered to throughout the process of choosing, packaging and delivering the books and all HSE guidelines are adhered to.

Since we started the service, 1,107 people have had books brought to their doors, and we have delivered 4, 829 books, dvds and audiobooks to people the length and breadth of the county, from Kilmanagh to Kilmacow, and Clogh to Stonyford, and everywhere in between.

Phone your local library /Library HQ or email info@kilkennylibrary.ie

Give staff your library card number, or let them know if you would like to become a member

Tell us they type of books/audiobooks or films you enjoy

Staff will select and prepare your books and your pack will be delivered directly to your door next time our driver is in your area.
